MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Development & Procurement, DPS/DCI

SUBJECT : [REDACTED]

25X1A

1. Herewith is a memorandum from [REDACTED] referring to the above company. I have looked through the various publications listed as attachments.

2. My impression is that this sounds like an able group of men organized into a small company and therefore capable of quick reaction. Their possession of technical competence in a number of fields should give them great versatility.

3. At the moment I know of no work that it would be appropriate to ask them to undertake for us but I believe we should keep this organization in mind for possible future use.

4. We are, of course, anxious to build up our [REDACTED] which already possesses outstanding capability in physics and electronics. Accordingly, I would not be inclined to give [REDACTED] assignments which call for this scarce and specialized skill. On the other hand, the two organizations are really not competitive (except perhaps in a very narrow field) so I doubt if this consideration will effect our use of [REDACTED]
